

Terms and Conditions of Use for Press Images Issued by the German Lost Art Foundation

1. Images that have been made available by the German Lost Art Foundation (hereinafter: the Foundation) are offered for download free of charge for editorial use in online and print publications as well as in film, television and multimedia publications, providing the source and photographer are acknowledged.
2. Images that are not expressly offered for download may only be used on request. An agreement is only valid for one-time use for the specified purpose and scope. Any further use requires the Foundation's additional prior written consent.
3. If the actual use does not correspond to the information provided by the user, the consent to use shall be deemed not to have been given and the Foundation shall be indemnified against claims for damages by third parties.
4. The photographic material may not be used for commercial advertising, brochures accompanying products, politically motivated measures (e.g. events) or the creation of posters. Sale of the images is prohibited. It is not permissible to reproduce an image in a context that distorts its meaning.
5. Each image is protected by copyright. The copyright notice provided for each image must be used, referring to the Foundation or the photographer commissioned by the Foundation, example: "German Lost Art Foundation / Name Photographer".
6. The images must be deleted after use or may not be stored for archiving purposes. The Foundation reserves the right to take legal action in the event of suspected misuse.
7. Two free copies of any print publication containing images of the Foundation must be sent to the address below. In the case of online publications, the exact link must be sent to the e-mail address listed below.
